

AIMA Seminar: Sydney 25th March 2017

THE FUTURE MEDICINE: JAMES MASKELL ON FUNCTIONAL MEDICINE AND THE MICROPRACTICE

Inspirational speaker, James Maskell will talk on why the future of non-communicable disease management is Functional Medicine. All attendees will receive practical, take-home tools on building your practice in this emerging model of medicine. James will draw on elements of his book The Evolution of Medicine: Join the Movement to Solve Chronic Disease and Fall Back in Love with Medicine as he gives a roadmap for any health professional to play a part in this titanic shift in medicine, along with a practical plan to building the health centre of the future.

Put simply, this is a 'not to be missed' event!

The workshop will focus on:

- Why Functional Medicine must be the future of non-communicable diseases
- The critical role of community in the future of functional medicine
- What are the biggest factors holding FxMed back from scaling?
- How we can take advantage of technology to scale care delivery?
- What are the best marketing and patient education strategies in the new era?
